

Pickup Arrangements

- Your pick up is being managed by a moving company of your choice. The Missing Piece provides names of companies that we have found to pick up furniture safely, have reasonable fees, and are licensed and bonded. However, you may select a different moving company. The suggestions are just made to help you.
- TMP receives no monetary compensation nor has any ownership position within any suggested moving companies.
- The Missing Piece has no liability for the pickup of your pieces by the company you select.
- You pay the moving company of your choice directly per their terms and payment alternatives.
- After coordination of your moving company choice, please communicate with The Missing Piece the company and date for the pickup. This facilitates scheduling of your item(s) to go on the showroom floor.

Cancelling your Appointment

- Should you need to cancel your appointment you must do so by 10am the day prior to your appointment by speaking to the company of your choice. For Monday pickups, you need to call the moving company by 10am Friday prior to your pick up. Please do not attempt to perform the cancellation by contacting The Missing Piece. After cancelling with the company of your choice, please communicate with The Missing Piece. This facilitates scheduling to have item(s) of others go on the showroom floor.

What Your Pick up Fee Includes

- Two licensed, bonded movers removing the furniture from your home
- Disassembling any beds being picked up
 - Note: previously disassembled beds are not accepted in order to ensure that all pieces are present for sale.
